2. Section eight of said Act is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor :

8. All moneys to be paid, as aforesaid, to any municipal corporation shall be expended in the improvement of the highways situate within the township or within the senior or junior township in respect of which such moneys were paid.

CHAPTER 3.

An Act to amend the Ontario Drainage Act.

[Assented to 4th March, 1881.]

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows :—

R.S.O. c. 33, s. 36 repealed.

1. The thirty-sixth section of chapter thirty-three, of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, entitled "An Act respecting the Expenditure of public money for Drainage Works," is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor :

Assessment a first charge on land.

The respective sums of money which, by the said assessment roll, are specified as the proportions or contributions payable in respect of the roads or several parcels or lots of land so drained, or improved by drainage, or by any works under the Act respecting the Public Works of Ontario, towards the total amount of the sums expended on and about such drainage or improvements as aforesaid, shall be charged on such several parcels or lots of land, and that in preference to and with priority over all incumbrances on such land, in manner following, that is to say, each several parcel or lot of land shall be charged with a payment to Her Majesty of a rent-charge after the rate of seven dollars and sixty cents per annum rent for every one hundred dollars charged on such several parcels or lots, or roads, and so in proportion for every less amount, to be payable for the term of twenty-two years, to be computed from the first first day of January next before the date hereinafter fixed for making the first payment; the first of such payments to be made on the first day of January next after the day a copy of the assessment roll was deposited, in pursuance of section thirteen, with the clerk of the municipality which, or the inhabitants of which, applied for the drainage, such payment to be for the preceding year.

2. The fortieth section of the said Act is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor: Sec. 40 repealed.

If the assessment roll is not revised in time to place the instalment of rent-charge payable for the current year, or for any previous year, in the collector's roll, or if for any cause any such instalment or instalments is or have been left off the roll for the proper year or years, then such instalment or instalments, with five per centum per annum added thereto, shall, in addition to the instalment for such year be placed on the collector's roll, when a collector's roll is next made out, unless the Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall take action under the next succeeding section. Provision where assessment roll not revised or instalment omitted from roll.

3. Wherever it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council that it would be inexpedient to levy in one year the full amount of the arrears, he may direct that the same, with interest duly compounded at five per centum per annum, in accordance with the rules for calculating annuities, should be spread over the whole or part of the term of twenty-two years then unexpired, or that the commencement of the term should be postponed so that such period of twenty-two years shall be computed from some first day of January subsequent to the day from which it would be computed under the thirty-sixth section of the said Act, as amended by this Act. Lieutenant-Governor in Council may postpone payment of arrears.

4. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council shall thereupon, by the same order, or by a subsequent order, state the proportion in which each item in the assessment roll shall be increased, and the number of years for which such increase shall take effect, and a certified copy of any order passed under the preceding sections, shall be attached to the duplicate roll in their respective offices, by the Commissioner of Public Works, the registrar, and the clerk of each municipality, with whom a duplicate of the roll had been deposited. Proportion in which items of assessment are to be increased to be stated in Order in Council.

5. The several parcels or lots of land and roads mentioned in the assessment roll shall each thereafter be charged with such increased amount as a rent-charge, in lieu of the amount with which it is charged under the assessment roll, for the term mentioned in the Order in Council and in preference to and with priority over all incumbrances. Increased amount a first charge on lands.

6. If, after the assessment roll has been deposited with the registrar or the Commissioner of Public Works, it is found that Correction by judge of errors in roll.
through through mistake, inadvertence, or otherwise, the amounts set opposite the several parcels or lots of land and roads do not in the aggregate amount to the sum which should have been charged in respect of the drainage or other works, or exceed the same, the judge of the county court of the county may, upon the application of the Commissioner of Public Works, or of any municipal council interested, cause to be produced before him the several copies of the assessment roll, and shall correct the errors therein, by striking out any incorrect amounts and inserting in their stead, in different coloured ink, the correct amounts.

Corrected amounts to be substituted.

7. The amounts so settled by the judge shall thereafter be substituted for the amounts named in the assessment roll.

Judge may in certain cases order a general increase or decrease of amounts in the roll.

8. If the error is of such a nature that it can be corrected by making an indorsement that all the amounts in the roll, or any particular class thereof, should be increased or decreased in a uniform proportion, the judge may, instead of altering all the figures, write upon the face of the roll an order directing such increase or decrease, and such amounts shall thereupon be deemed to be increased or decreased in accordance with the said order.

Power and authority of judge.

9. The judge, upon the said application, shall have authority to take evidence under oath, and shall, where he considers it necessary, cause notice to be given to any of the persons whose assessments it is proposed to increase, but when the question to be discussed affects a number of persons it shall not be necessary to direct more than one of such class of persons to be notified; and where, in the opinion of the judge, the council sufficiently represents the interest of all the persons assessed, or the interest of any particular class, he need not cause any person, or any person of such class to be notified.

Provisions as to rents-charge.

10. The provisions of the thirty-seventh, thirty-eighth, and thirty-ninth sections of the said Act shall apply to the rents-charge substituted under this Act for the rents-charge in the assessment roll.

Orders in Council to be laid before Legislative Assembly.

11. Every order in Council made under the terms of this Act shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the making of such order, be laid before the Legislative Assembly.

Assessment not invalidated by omission to file roll.

12. In case the council of the municipality shall have omitted to file with the registrar of the county, or with the Commissioner of Public Works, a duplicate of the assessment roll within the time specified in the thirty-fourth section of the said Revised Statute, such omission shall not be held in any way to invalidate the assessment, but the council shall forthwith, as soon as their attention is called to such omission, file such duplicate or duplicates in accordance with the provisions of the said section.

69

By person of unsound mind.

(a) But no such order shall be made unless it appears on the hearing of such application that the writ of summons was duly served, and that notice of the application was, after the expiration of the time allowed for appearance, and at least 6 clear days before the day in the notice named for hearing the application, served upon, or left at the dwelling-house of, the person with whom or under whose care such defendant was at the time of serving such writ of summons.

70

2. In case of an infant defendant, who has been served with a writ of summons, otherwise than by the same being served on the official guardian, if no guardian ad litem is appointed within 7 days after the time for appearance had expired, the plaintiff may serve the official guardian with notice of the said particulars; whereupon from the time of such service the official guardian shall become and be the guardian ad litem of the infant, unless and until the Court otherwise orders; and it shall be his duty forthwith to attend actively to the interests of the infant in the action, and for that purpose to communicate with all proper parties, including the father or guardian (if any) of the infant, and also the person with whom or under whose care the infant resides, in case such person is not the infant's father or guardian; and the guardian is to make such other inquiries and take such other proceedings as the interests of the infant may require.

Where writ not specially indorsed.

(a) In such case the plaintiff is not to be entitled to the costs of the statements of the particulars of his claim, unless the taxing officer is notified that there was good reason for not specially indorsing the writ, so as to render unnecessary filing and serving such statements.

75

7. Where the defendant fails to appear to the writ of summons and the plaintiff's claim is not for a debt or liquidated demand only, but for detention of goods and pecuniary damages, or either of them, no statement of claim need be delivered, but interlocutory judgment may be entered, and the value of the goods and the damages, or the damages only, as the case may be, in respect of the causes of action disclosed by the indorsement on the writ of summons shall be assessed as hitherto, or at the County Court of the County in which the action is brought if the solicitors for all parties reside in such County; or the High Court or a Judge thereof, may order that the value and amount of damages, or either of them, shall be ascertained in any other way in which any question arising in an action may be tried.

11. Where the action is for the foreclosure or redemption of a mortgage, or sale of mortgaged premises, if the plaintiff is not entitled to a judgment or order on præcipe, or would not according to the practice of the Court of Chancery be entitled on præcipe to such a judgment or order as he desires, he shall be entitled to the proper judgment or order, on notice or otherwise, according to the practice of the Court of Chancery where a cause is heard on an order to take the bill pro confesso or otherwise.

A copy of the affidavit shall accompany the notice of motion. The Court or a Judge may thereupon, unless the defendant, by affidavit or otherwise, satisfy the Court or a Judge that he has a good defence to the action on the merits, or disclose such facts as may be deemed sufficient to entitle him to defend the action, make an order empowering the plaintiff to sign judgment accordingly.

4. In any case if it appears that the defence set up by the defendant applies only to a part of the plaintiff's claim, or that any part of his claim is admitted to be due, the plaintiff shall have judgment forthwith for such part of his claim as the defence does not apply to or as is admitted to be due, subject to such terms, if any, as to suspending execution, or the payment of any amount levied or any part thereof into Court by the sheriff, the taxation of costs, or otherwise, as the Judge may think fit. And the defendant may be allowed to defend as to the residue of the plaintiff's claim. 83
Defence as to part.

5. If it appears to the Judge that any defendant has a good defence to the action, or ought to be permitted to defend the action, and that any other defendant has not such defence and ought not to be permitted to defend, the former may be permitted to defend, and the plaintiff shall be entitled to enter final judgment against the latter, and may issue execution upon such judgment without prejudice to his right to proceed with his action against the former. 84

Leave to defend may be absolute or conditional.

23. If a person not a party to the action served under these Rules appears pursuant to the notice, the party giving the notice may apply to the Court or a Judge for directions as to the mode of having the question in the action determined;

(a) The Court or Judge, upon the hearing of such application, may, if it shall appear desirable so to do, give to the person so served liberty to defend the action upon such terms as shall seem just, and may direct such pleadings to be delivered, or such amendments in any pleadings to be made, and generally may direct such proceedings to be taken, and give such directions, as to the Court or Judge shall appear proper for having the question most conveniently determined, and with respect to the mode and extent in or to which the person so served shall be bound or made liable by the decision of the question, and as to the costs of the proceedings.

Plaintiff not to be delayed by questions between defendants.

24. A plaintiff is not to be unnecessarily delayed in recovering his claim by reason of questions between defendants in which the plaintiff is not concerned; and the Court or Judge is to give such direction as may be necessary to prevent such delay of the plaintiff, where this can be done, on terms or otherwise, without injustice to the defendants.

113

Service on infant or person of unsound mind.

25. Where a person not already a party to a suit is to be served with notice of a judgment or order for the purpose of binding him as if he had been originally a party, and such person is an infant, or person of unsound mind not so found by inquisition or judicial declaration, the notice shall be served in the same manner as a writ of summons.

114

Parties to administration proceeding.

26. In any cause or matter for the administration of the estate of a deceased person, no party other than the executor or administrator shall, unless by leave of the Judge, be entitled to appear either in Court or in Chambers on the claim of any person person not a party to the cause against the estate of the deceased in respect of any debt or liability. The Judge may direct any other party to the cause to appear, either in addition to or in the place of the executor or administrator, upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as he shall think fit.

ORDER XIII.

JOINDER OF CAUSES OF ACTION.

1. Subject to the following Rules, the plaintiff may unite in the same action and in the same statement of claim several causes of action; but if it appear to the Court or a Judge that any such causes of action cannot be conveniently tried or disposed of together, the Court or Judge may order separate trials of any of such causes of action to be had, or may make such other order as may be necessary or expedient for the separate disposal thereof.

What causes of action may be joined.

2. No cause of action shall, unless by leave of the Court or a Judge, be joined with an action for the recovery of land, except claims in respect of mesne profits or arrears of rent in respect of the premises claimed, or any part thereof, and damages for breach of any contract under which the same or any part thereof are or is held; and except claims in actions on mortgages, for the recovery of the mortgage money and for foreclosure or sale.

116

Action for recovery of land.

3. Claims by an assignee in insolvency as such shall not, unless by leave of the Court or a Judge, be joined with any claim by him in any other capacity.

117

Claims by assignee in insolvency.

4. Claims by or against husband and wife may be joined with claims by or against either of them separately.

118

Claims by or against husband and wife.

5. Claims by or against an executor or administrator as such may be joined with claims by or against him personally, provided the last mentioned claims are alleged to arise with reference to the estate in respect of which the plaintiff or defendant sues or is sued as executor or administrator.

119

Claims by or against executor.

6. Claims by plaintiffs jointly may be joined with claims by them or any of them separately against the same defendant.

120

Joint and several claims.

7. The last 3 preceding Rules shall be subject to Rule 1 of this Order, and to the Rules hereinafter contained.

121

Power to order separate trial.

8. Any defendant alleging that the plaintiff has united in the same action several causes of action which cannot be conveniently disposed of in one action, may at any time apply to the Court or a Judge for an order confining the action to such of

122

Application to strike out.

of the causes of action as may be conveniently disposed of in one proceeding.

123

Order to strike
out pleadings.

9. If, on the hearing of such application as in the last preceding Rule mentioned, it shall appear to the Court or a Judge that the causes of action are such as cannot all be conveniently disposed of in one action, the Court or a Judge may order any of such causes of action to be excluded, and may direct the statement of claim, or, if no statement of claim has been delivered, the copy of the writ of summons and the indorsement of claim on the writ of summons, to be amended accordingly, and may make such order as to costs as may be just.

ORDER XIV.

ACTIONS BY AND AGAINST LUNATICS AND PERSONS OF UN SOUND MIND.

124

persons.

In all cases in which lunatics and persons of unsound mind, not so found by inquisition or judicial declaration, might respectively before the passing of the Act have sued as plaintiffs, or would have been liable to be sued as defendants, in any action or suit, they may respectively sue as plaintiffs in any action by their committees or next friends in manner practised in the Court of Chancery before the passing of the said Act, and may in like manner defend any action by their committees or guardians appointed for that purpose.

ORDER XV.

PLEADING GENERALLY.

125

Old rules abolished.

1. The following Rules of pleading shall be substituted for those heretofore used in the Court of Chancery and in the Courts of Common Law.

126

Statement of claim and defence.

2. Unless the defendant in an action at the time of his appearance shall state that he does not require the delivery of a statement of claim, the plaintiff shall within such time and in such manner as hereinafter prescribed, deliver to the defendant after his appearance a statement of his claim and of the relief or remedy to which he claims to be entitled; or a notice in lieu of such statement as provided by Order 17 of these Rules.

(a) The defendant shall, within such time and in such manner as hereinafter prescribed, deliver to the plaintiff a statement of his defence, set-off, or counter-claim (if any).

(b)

(b) The plaintiff may, in like manner, deliver a statement of his reply (if any) to such defence, set-off, or counter-claim.

(c) Such statements shall be as brief as the nature of the case will admit, and the Court in adjusting the costs of the action shall inquire at the instance of any party into any unnecessary prolixity, and order the costs occasioned by such prolixity to be borne by the party chargeable with the same.

(d) The taxing officer shall have the like duty where the Court has not made such order.

3. A defendant in an action may set-off, or set up by way of counter-claim, against the claims of the plaintiff, any right or claim whether such set-off or counter-claim sound in damages or not. 127
Set-off and counter-claim.

(a) Such set-off or counter-claim shall have the same effect as a statement of claim in a cross-action, so as to enable the Court to pronounce a final judgment in the same action, both on the original and on the cross claim.

(b) But the Court or a Judge may, on the application of the plaintiff before trial, if in the opinion of the Court or Judge such set-off or counter-claim cannot be conveniently disposed of in the pending action, or ought not to be allowed, refuse permission to the defendant to avail himself thereof.

4. Every pleading shall contain as concisely as may be a statement of the material facts on which the party pleading relies, but not the evidence by which they are to be proved; such statement shall be divided into paragraphs, numbered consecutively; and each paragraph shall contain, as nearly as may be, a separate allegation; dates, sums and numbers shall be expressed in figures and not in words; signature of counsel shall not be necessary; forms similar to those in Appendix (D) hereto may be used. 128
Form of pleadings.

5. Every pleading may be either printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, but no more than 4 copies of any pleading or other document are to be allowed to any party in a cause or matter, exclusive of the draft, but inclusive of all other copies that may be required, or made, in the progress of the cause. 129
Copies of pleadings.

6. If more than 3 copies, exclusive of the draft, are required of any pleading or other document, the party may have the pleading or document printed for the purposes of the cause or matter, and in that case he shall in lieu of all charges for copies be allowed 30 cents per folio of the pleading or document, and his reasonable disbursements of procuring the same to be printed. 130
Printing pleadings.

Delivery of pleadings.

7. Every pleading or other document required to be delivered to a party, or between parties, shall be delivered to the solicitor of every party who appears by a solicitor, or to the party if he does not appear by a solicitor; but if no appearance has been entered for any party, then such pleading or document shall be delivered by being posted up in the office from which the writ of summons was issued.

132

How pleadings delivered should be marked.

8. Every pleading in an action shall be delivered between parties, and shall be marked on the face with the date of the day on which it is filed, and with the reference to the Division to which the action is assigned, the title of the action, the description of the pleading, and the name and place of business of the solicitor and agent (if any) of the party filing the same, or the name and address of the party filing the same if he does not act by a solicitor.

133

Relief claimed to be stated specifically.

9. Every statement of claim shall state specifically the relief which the plaintiff claims, either simply or in the alternative, and may also ask for general relief. And the same rule shall apply to any counter-claim made, or relief claimed by the defendant, in his statement of defence. If the plaintiff's claim be for discovery only, the statement of claim shall shew it.

Distinct claims or defences.

10. Where the plaintiff seeks relief in respect of several distinct claims or causes of complaint founded upon separate and distinct facts, they shall be stated, as far as may be, separately and distinctly. And the same rule shall apply where the defendant relies upon several distinct grounds of defence, set-off, or counter-claim founded upon separate and distinct facts.

135

Effect of document may be stated.

11. Where the contents of any document are material, it shall be sufficient in any pleading to state the effect thereof as briefly as possible, without setting out the whole or any part thereof unless the precise words of the document or any part thereof are material.

136

Allegation of malice, etc.

12. Where it is material to allege malice, fraudulent intention, knowledge or other condition of the mind of any person, it shall be sufficient to allege the same as a fact, without setting out the circumstances from which the same is to be inferred.

137

Allegation of notice.

13. Where it is material to allege notice to any person of any fact, matter or thing, it shall be sufficient to allege such notice as a fact, unless the form or the precise terms of such notice is material.

Implied contract.

14. Where any contract or any relation between any persons does not arise from an express agreement, but is to be implied from a series of letters or conversations, or otherwise from a number number of circumstances, it shall be sufficient to allege such contract or relation as a fact, and to refer generally to such letters, conversations, or circumstances without setting them out in detail; and if in such a case, the person so pleading desires to rely in the alternative upon more contracts or relations than one, as to be implied from such circumstances, he may state the same in the alternative.

15. Neither party need in any pleading allege any matter of fact which the law presumes in his favour, or as to which the burden of proof lies upon the other side, unless the same has first been specifically denied. 139 Facts presumed need not be stated.

[E.g.—Consideration for a bill of exchange where the plaintiff sues only on the bill, and not for the consideration as a substantive ground of claim.]

16. If either party wishes to deny the right of any other party to claim as executor, or as trustee, or as assignee in insolvency, or in any representative or other alleged capacity, or the alleged constitution of any partnership firm, he shall deny the same specifically, or the same will be taken to be admitted. 140
Denial of representative capacity.

17. Where a contract is alleged in any pleading, a bare denial of the contract by the opposite party shall be construed only as a denial of the making of the contract in fact, and not of its legality or its sufficiency in law, whether with reference to the Statute of Frauds or otherwise. 141
Bare denial of contract only denial of the making.

18. No plea or defence shall be pleaded in abatement. 142
No Plea in abatement.

19. No new assignment shall hereafter be necessary or used. But everything which has heretofore been alleged by way of new assignment is hereafter to be introduced by amendment of the statement of claim. 143
No new assignment.

20. No defendant in an action for the recovery of land who is in possession by himself or his tenant need plead his title, unless his defence depends on an equitable estate or right, or he claims relief upon any equitable ground against any right or title asserted by the plaintiff. But, except in the cases hereinbefore mentioned, it shall be sufficient to state by way of defence that he is so in possession. And he may nevertheless rely upon any ground of defence which he can prove, except as hereinbefore mentioned. 144
Defence to action for recovery of land.

21. Nothing in these Rules contained shall affect the right of any defendant to plead not guilty by statute. And every defence of not guilty by statute shall have the same effect as a plea of not guilty by statute has heretofore had. But if the defendant so plead he shall not plead any other defence without the leave of the Court or a Judge. 145
Plea of not guilty by statute.

Manner of making admissions.

22. Admissions are, in all cases where it is practicable, to be by reference to the numbers of the paragraphs in the pleading to which they relate, with such qualifications as may be necessary or proper for protecting the interests of the party making such admissions: thus—"the defendant admits the allegations made in the first, second and third paragraphs of the plaintiff's claim."

147

What facts must be pleaded.

23. Each party in any pleading, not being a petition or a writ of summons, must allege all such facts not appearing in the previous pleading (if any), as he means to rely on, and must raise all such grounds of defence or reply, as the case may be, as if not so raised on the pleadings would be likely to take the opposite party by surprise, or would raise new issues of fact not arising out of the pleadings, as (for instance) fraud, or that any claim has been barred by the Statute of Limitations, or has been released.

148

Silence of pleading no admission.

24. Save as above otherwise provided, the silence of a pleading as to any allegation contained in the previous pleading of the opposite party is not to be construed into an implied admission of the truth of such allegation; and any allegation introduced for the purpose of preventing such implied admission, and not for the purpose of making intelligible the grounds of defence, is to be considered impertinent.

149

Inconsistent pleadings.

25. No pleading, not being a petition or summons, shall, except by way of amendment, raise any new ground of claim or contain any allegation of fact inconsistent with the previous pleadings of the party pleading the same.

150

Delivery includes filing.

26. Delivering a statement of claim or defence or other pleading or proceeding, when mentioned or referred to in these Orders, includes filing, where, by the practice of the Courts heretofore or under these Orders, such statement, pleading or proceeding ought to be filed.

ORDER XVI.

PLEADING MATTERS ARISING PENDING THE ACTION.

151

Before delivery of defence.

1. Any ground of defence which has arisen after action brought, but before the defendant has delivered his statement of defence, may be pleaded by the defendant in his statement of defence, either alone or together with other grounds of defence.

152

Before delivery of defence to counter-claim.

2. If, after a statement of defence has been delivered, any ground of defence arises to any set-off or counter-claim alleged therein by the defendant, it may be pleaded by the plaintiff in reply, or be introduced by amendment into the statement of claim, within 3 weeks after the defence or the last of the defences shall have been delivered, unless the time shall be extended by the Court or a Judge.

3. Where any ground of defence arises after the defendant has delivered his statement of defence, he may within 8 days after such ground of defence has arisen, deliver a further defence setting forth the same, or, introduce the same by amendment into his statement of defence. 153
After delivery of defence.

4. Where a ground of defence to any set-off or counter-claim arises after the expiration of 3 weeks from the time of delivering the defence or the last of the defences, the plaintiff within 8 days after such ground of defence has arisen, may deliver a further reply setting forth the same, or may introduce such new ground of defence into his statement of claim by amendment. 154
After delivery of reply.

5. In any such case the amendment of the pleading filed may be made without an order, on filing a præcipe and an affidavit that the matter of the amendment arose within 8 days, next before the day of the making of such amendment. 155
Amendment on præcipe.

6. In cases not provided for by the preceding rules, the leave of the Court or a Judge to amend the statement of claim or defence, or to deliver a further defence or reply, is to be obtained on notice supported by affidavit. 156 Amendment by leave.

7. Where any defendant, in his statement of defence, whether by way of amendment or otherwise, alleges any ground of defence which has arisen after the commencement of the action, the plaintiff may deliver a confession of such defence; which confession may be in the Form No. 17 in Appendix (B) hereto, with such variations as circumstances may require; and he may thereupon sign judgment for his costs up to the time of the pleading of such defence unless the Court or a Judge shall, either before or after the delivery of such confession, otherwise order. 157
Plaintiff may deliver confession of defence.

ORDER XVII.

STATEMENT OF CLAIM.

1. The delivery of statements of claim shall be regulated as follows:—

(a) If the defendant shall not state that he does not require the delivery of a statement of claim, the plaintiff shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge, deliver it within 158
Time within which to be delivered.

3 months from the time of the defendant's entering his appearance.

(b) If the defendant shall state that he does not require the delivery of a statement of claim, the plaintiff shall file a copy of the summons with all indorsements thereon within the same time.

(c) The plaintiff may, if he think fit, deliver a statement of claim, with the writ of summons, or notice in lieu of writ of summons, or at any time afterwards, either before or after appearance, and although the defendant may have appeared and stated that he does not require the delivery of a statement of claim: Provided that in no case where a defendant has appeared shall a statement be delivered more than 3 months after the appearance has been entered, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge.

(d) Where a plaintiff delivers a statement of claim without being required to do so, the Court or a Judge may make such order as to the costs occasioned thereby as shall seem just, if it appears that the delivery of a statement of claim was unnecessary or improper.

(e) The taxing officer shall have the same duty if no order is made by the Court or a Judge.

159

Notice in lieu of statement.

2. Where the writ is specially indorsed and the defendant has not dispensed with a statement of claim, it shall be sufficient for the plaintiff to file a copy of the writ, with a copy of the special indorsement thereon, if not filed already, and deliver as his statement of claim a notice to the effect that his claim is that which appears by the indorsement upon the writ, unless the Court or a Judge shall order him to deliver a further statement.

(a) Such notice may be either written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, and may be in the Form No. 16 in Appendix (B) hereto; and shall be marked on the face in the same manner as is required in the case of an ordinary statement of claim.

(b) When the plaintiff is ordered to deliver such further statement it shall be delivered within such time as by such order shall be directed; and if no time be so limited then within the time prescribed by Rule 1 of this Order.

Where a defendant by his statement of defence sets up a counter-claim, if the plaintiff, or any other person named in manner aforesaid as party to such counter-claim, contends that the claim thereby raised ought not to be disposed of by way of counter-claim, but in an independent action, he may at any time within 3 weeks from the delivery of such statement of defence, apply to the Court or a Judge for an order that such counter-claim may be excluded; and the Court or a Judge may, on the hearing of such application, make such order as shall be just.

Judgment for balance of counter-claim.

10. Where in any action a set-off or counter-claim is established as a defence against the plaintiff's claim, the Court may, if the balance is in favour of the defendant, give judgment for the defendant for such balance, or may otherwise adjudge to the defendant such relief as he may be entitled to upon the merits of the case.

ORDER XIX.

DISCONTINUANCE.

170

Discontinuance.

1. The plaintiff may, at any time before receipt of the defendant's statement of defence, or after the receipt thereof before taking any other proceeding in the action (save any interlocutory application), by notice in writing, filed and served, wholly discontinue his action or withdraw any part or parts of his alleged cause of complaint; and thereupon he shall pay the defendant's costs of the action, or if the action be not wholly discontinued, the defendant's costs occasioned by the matter so withdrawn.

Costs.

(a) Such costs shall be taxed, and such discontinuance or withdrawal, as the case may be, shall not be a defence to any subsequent action.

Withdrawal of record.

(b) Save as in this Order otherwise provided, it shall not be competent for the plaintiff to withdraw the Record or discontinue the action without leave of the Court or a Judge, but the Court or a Judge may, before, or at or after the hearing or trial, upon such terms as to costs, and as to any other action, and otherwise, as may seem fit, order the action to be discontinued, or any part of the alleged cause of complaint to be struck out.

(c)

(c) The Court or a Judge may, in like manner, and with the like discretion as to terms, upon the application of a defendant, order the whole or any part of his alleged grounds of defence or counter-claim to be withdrawn or struck out, but it shall not be competent to a defendant to withdraw his defence, or any part thereof, without such leave.

175

Time for delivery.

ORDER XXI.

CLOSE OF PLEADINGS.

As soon as either party has joined issue upon any pleading of the opposite party simply, without adding any further or other pleading thereto, or as soon as the time for amending the pleadings under these Rules or under any order made in the action or for delivering a reply or subsequent pleading or demurrer, has expired, the pleadings as between such parties shall be deemed to be closed without any joinder of issue being pleaded by any or either party.

176

When pleadings closed.

ORDER

ORDER XXII.

ISSUES.

177

Settlement of issues.

Where in any action it appears to a Judge that the statement of claim or defence or reply does not sufficiently define the issues of fact in dispute between the parties, he may direct the parties to prepare issues, and such issues shall, if the parties differ, be settled by the Judge.

ORDER XXIII.

AMENDMENT OF PLEADINGS.

178

Amendment
with leave.

1. The Court or a Judge may, at any stage of the proceedings, allow either party to alter his statement of claim or defence or reply; or may order to be struck out or amended any matter in such statements respectively which may be scandalous, or which may tend to prejudice, embarrass, or delay the fair trial of the action. All such amendments shall be made as may be necessary for the purpose of determining the real questions or question in controversy between the parties.

179

Amendment
by plaintiff
without leave.

2. The plaintiff may, without any leave, amend his statement of claim once at any time before the expiration of the time limited for reply and before replying, or, where no defence is delivered, at any time before the expiration of 4 weeks from the appearance of the defendant who shall have last appeared.

180

Amendment
by defendant
without leave.

3. A defendant who has set up in his defence any set-off or counter-claim, may, without any leave, amend such set-off or counter-claim at any time before the expiration of the time allowed him for pleading to the reply, and before pleading thereto, or in case there be no reply, then within 28 days from the filing of his defence.

181

of amendment.

4. Where any party has amended his pleadings under either of the last 2 preceding Rules, the opposite party may, within 8 days after the delivery to him of the amended pleading, apply to the Court or a Judge, to disallow the amendment, or any part thereof, and the Court or Judge may, if satisfied that the justice of the case requires it, disallow the same, or allow it, subject to such terms as to costs or otherwise as may seem just.

182

Leave to plead or amend after amendment.

5. Where any party has amended his pleading under Rule 2 or 3 of this Order, the other party may without leave amend his former pleading within 4 days after the delivery of the pleading so amended under such Rule: or he may apply to the Court or a Judge for leave to amend his former pleading within such further time and upon such terms as may seem just.

7. In all cases not provided for by the preceding Rules numbered from 2 to 6, of this Order, application for leave to amend any pleading may be made by either party to the Court or a Judge in Chambers, or to the Judge at the trial of the action, and such amendment may be allowed upon such terms as to costs or otherwise, as may seem just. 184
Application for leave to amend.

8. If a party who has obtained an order for leave to amend a pleading delivered by him does not amend the same within the time limited for that purpose by the order, or if no time is thereby limited, then within 14 days from the date of the order, such order to amend shall, on the expiration of such limited time as aforesaid, or of such 14 days, as the case may be, become, ipso facto, void, unless the time is extended by the Court or a Judge. 185
Time limited for amendment.

9. A pleading may be amended by written alterations in the copies filed and served and by additions on paper to be interleaved therewith if necessary; unless the amendments require the insertion of more than 200 words in any one place, or are so numerous or of such a nature that the making them in the copies filed and served would render the same difficult or inconvenient to read; in either of which cases the amendment must be made by delivering a print or fresh copy of the pleading as amended. 186
How alterations to be made.

10. Where any pleading is amended, such pleading when amended shall be marked with the date of the order, if any, under which the same is so amended, and of the day on which such amendment is made, in manner following, viz.: "Amended day of .". 187

Demurrer
when allowed.

the case may be, on the ground that the facts alleged therein do not shew any cause of action or ground of defence to a claim or any part thereof, or set-off, or counter-claim, or reply or as the case may be, to which effect can be given by the Court as against the party demurring.

190

Form of
demurrer.

2. A demurrer shall state specifically whether it is to the whole or to a part, and if to part only, to what part, of the pleading of the opposite party. It shall state some ground in law for the demurrer, but the party demurring shall not, on the argument of the demurrer, be limited to the ground so stated. A demurrer may be in the Form No. 74 in Appendix (D) hereto. If no ground, or only a frivolous ground of demurrer is stated, the Court or a Judge may set aside such demurrer, with costs.

191

Delivery of demurrer.

3. A demurrer shall be delivered in the same manner and within the same time as any other pleading in the action.

192

And so in every case where a party entitled to put in a further pleading desires to demur to part of the last pleading of the opposite party, he shall combine such demurrer and other pleading.

193

Plea and de-murrer to same pleading without leave.

5. Either party may without leave plead and demur to the same pleading at the same time by filing an affidavit by such party distinctly denying some one or more material statement or statements in such pleading; or stating that the several matters sought to be pleaded by way of confession and avoidance are respectively true in substance and in fact; and that he is further advised and believes that the objections raised by such demurrer are good and valid objections in law. The affidavit is to be annexed to and filed with the plea and demurrer, and a copy of the affidavit is to be served with the plea and demurrer.

194

Leave to demur and plead to the same matter.

6. If the party demurring desires to be at liberty to plead as well as to demur to the matter demurred to without filing such affidavit, he may, before demurring, apply to the Court or a Judge for an order giving him leave to so plead and demur, such application being supported by such affidavit as now required in the Superior Courts of Law; and the Court or Judge, if satisfied that there is reasonable ground for the demurrer, may make an order accordingly, or may reserve leave to him to plead after the demurrer is overruled, and may direct which issue shall be first disposed of; or may make such other order and upon such terms as may be just.

195

Entry for argument.

7. Where a demurrer either to the whole or part of a pleading is delivered, either party may enter the demurrer for argument ment immediately, and the party so entering such demurrer shall on the same day give notice thereof to the other party.

(a) If the demurrer shall not be entered and notice thereof given within 10 days after delivery, and if the party whose pleading is demurred to does not within such time serve an order for leave to amend, the demurrer shall be held sufficient, for the same purposes, and with the same result as to costs, as if it had been allowed on argument. Effect of not entering.

8. While a demurrer to the whole or any part of a pleading is pending, such pleading shall not be amended unless by order of the Court or a Judge; and no such order shall be made except on payment of the costs of the demurrer. 196
No amendment pending demurrer.

9. Where a demurrer to the whole or part of any pleading is allowed upon argument, the party whose pleading is demurred to shall, unless the Court otherwise order, pay to the demurring party the costs of the demurrer. 197
Costs of successful demurrer.

10. If a demurrer to the whole of a statement of claim be allowed, the plaintiff, subject to the power of the Court to allow the statement of claim to be amended, shall pay to the demurring defendant the costs of the action, unless the Court shall otherwise order. 198
Costs of action on successful demurrer to plaintiff's whole claim.

11. Where a demurrer to any pleading or part of a pleading is allowed in a case not falling within the last preceding Rule, then (subject to the power of the Court to allow an amendment) the matter demurred to shall as between the parties to the demurrer be deemed to be struck out of the pleadings, and the rights of the parties shall be the same as if it had not been pleaded. 199
Effect of demurrer to part being allowed.

12. Where a demurrer is overruled, the demurring party shall pay to the opposite party the costs occasioned by the demurrer, unless the Court shall otherwise direct. 200
Costs of unsuccessful demurrer.

13. Where a demurrer is overruled, the Court may make such order, and upon such terms as to the Court shall seem right, for allowing the demurring party to raise by pleading any case he may be desirous to set up in opposition to the matter demurred to. 201

3. Where in any such action as in the last preceding Rule mentioned there are several defendants, if one of them makes default as mentioned in the last preceding Rule, the plaintiff may enter final judgment against the defendant so making default, and issue execution upon such judgment without prejudice to his right to proceed with his action against the other defendants.

In all other actions than those in the preceding Rules of this Order mentioned, if the defendant makes default in delivering a defence or demurrer, the plaintiff may set down the action on motion for judgment, and such judgment shall be given as upon the statement of claim the Court shall consider the plaintiff to be entitled to.

Other actions.

10. Where, in any such action as mentioned in the last preceding Rule, there are several defendants, then, if one of such defendants makes such default as aforesaid, the plaintiff may either set down the action at once on motion for judgment against the defendant so making default, or may set it down against him at the time when it is entered for trial or set down on motion for judgment against the other defendants.

212

Where, upon the application for a commission to take evidence, the opposite party shall desire to join in the commission and examine witnesses on his own behalf thereunder, or shall name a commissioner, each party is to pay the cost of the commission consequent upon the examination of his witnesses and the appointment of his commissioner, without prejudice to the question by whom such costs are ultimately to be borne: and if for any reason the commissioner named by either party shall refuse to act in the execution of the commission upon receiving 48 hours' notice in writing from the other of them so to do, the commission may be executed by the commissioner giving such notice alone.

Agent.

Writ issued 23rd August, 18 .

Between A. B. and Company, Plaintiffs, and

E. F. and Company, Defendants.

Statement of Claim.

1. The plaintiffs are manufacturers of artificial manures, carrying on Claim. business at _____, in the county of _____.

2. The defendants are commission agents, carrying on business in Toronto.

3. In the early part of the year , the plaintiffs commenced, and down to the 18 , continued to consign to the defendants, as their agents, large quantities of their manures for sale, and the defendants sold the same and received the price thereof and accounted to the plaintiffs therefor.

4. No express agreement has ever been entered into between the plaintiffs and the defendants with respect to the terms of the defendants' employment as agents. The defendants have always charged the plaintiffs a commission at per cent. on all sales effected by them, which is the rate of commission ordinarily charged by all del credere agents in the said trade. And the defendants, in fact, always accounted to the plaintiffs for the price, whether they received the same from the purchasers or not.

5. The plaintiffs contend that the defendants are liable to them as del credere agents, but if not so liable are under the circumstances herein-after mentioned liable as ordinary agents.

7. On or about the , the defendants sold tons of part of such goods to one G. H. for $, at 3 months' credit, and delivered the same to him.

8. G. H. was not, at that time, in good credit and was in insolvent circumstances, and the defendants might, by ordinary care and diligence, have ascertained the fact.

9. G. H. did not pay for the said goods, but before the expiration of the said 3 months for which credit had been given, the estate of the said G. H. was placed in liquidation under the insolvency Acts then in force ; and the plaintiffs have never received the said sum of $ or any part thereof.

Statement of Defence.

Defence.

1. The defendants deny that the said commission of per cent. mentioned in paragraph 4 of the claim is the rate of commission ordinarily charged by del credere agents in the said trade, and say that the same is the ordinary commission for agents other than del credere agents, and they deny that they ever accounted to the plaintiffs for the price of any goods, except after they had received the same from the purchasers.

2. The defendants deny that they were ever liable to the plaintiffs as del credere agents.

3. With respect to the 8th paragraph of the plaintiffs' statement of claim, the defendants say that at the time of the said sale to the said G. H., the said G. H. was a person in good credit. If the truth is that the said G. H. was then in insolvent circumstances, the defendants did not suspect and had not reason to suspect the same, and could not by ordinary care or diligence have ascertained the fact.

4. The defendants admit the allegations contained in paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 6, 7 and 9 of the plaintiffs' statement of claim.

2. The plaintiff thereupon undertook to examine the partnership books, and inquire into the state of the partnership assets and liabilities; and he did accordingly examine the books, and make the said inquiries, and he thereupon represented to the defendant that the assets of the firm exceeded $10,000, and that the liabilities of the firm were under $3,000, whereas the fact was that the assets of the firm were less than $5,000, and the liabilities of the firm largely exceeded the assets.

 in the defendant's yard, at about 6 o'clock in the morning.

3. A few minutes after the plaintiff had so come to work the defendant's foreman, X. Y., who was then in the yard, called the plaintiff to him, and accused the plaintiff of having on the previous day stolen a quantity of paint, the property of the defendant, from the yard. The plaintiff denied the charge, but X. Y. gave the plaintiff into the custody of a constable, whom he had previously sent for, upon a charge of stealing paint.

E. F., Defendant.

Statement of Claim.

Claim.

1. In or about March, 1880, the defendant caused to be inserted in the Newspaper an advertisement, in which he offered for sale the lease, fixtures, fittings, goodwill, and stock-in-trade of a baker's shop and business, and described the same as an increasing business, and doing 12 barrels a week. The advertisement directed application for particulars to be made to X. Y.

2. The plaintiff having seen the advertisement applied to X. Y., who placed him in communication with the defendant, and negotiations ensued between the plaintiff and the defendant for the sale to the plaintiff of the defendant's bakery at with the lease, fixtures, fittings, stock-in-trade, and good-will.

3. In the course of these negotiations the defendant repeatedly stated to the plaintiff that the business was a steadily increasing business, and that it was a business of more than 12 barrels a week.

4. On the 5th of April, 1880, the plaintiff, believing the said statements of the defendant to be true, agreed to purchase the said premises from the defendant, for $2000, and paid to him a deposit of $300 in respect of the purchase.

5. On the 15th of April the purchase was completed, an assignment of the lease executed, and the balance of the purchase money paid. On the same day the plaintiff entered into possession.

6. The plaintiff soon afterwards discovered that at the time of the negotiations for the said purchase by him and of the said agreement, and of the completion thereof, the said business was and had long been a declining business; and at each of those times, and for a long time before, it had never been a business of more than 4 barrels a week. And the said premises were not of the value of $2000, or any saleable value whatever.

7. The defendant made the false representations hereinbefore mentioned well knowing them to be false, and fraudulently, with the intention of inducing the plaintiff to make the said purchase on the faith of them.

And the defendant denies the allegations of the 6th paragraph of the statement of claim.

2. The defendant repeatedly during the negotiations told the plaintiff that he must not act upon any statement or representation of his, but must ascertain for himself the extent and value of the said business. And the defendant handed to the plaintiff for this purpose the whole of his books, shewing fully and truthfully all the details of the said business, and from which the nature, extent, and value thereof could be fully seen, and those books were examined for that purpose by the plaintiff, and by an accountant on his behalf. And the plaintiff made the purchase in reliance upon his own judgment, and the result of his own inquiries and investigations, and not upon any statement or representation whatever of the defendant.

Reply.

The plaintiff, A. B., admits the agreement stated in the defendant, Reply. C. D.'s, statement of defence, but he refuses to grant to the defendant a lease, because such agreement provided that the lease should contain a covenant by the defendant to keep the house in good repair, and a power of re-entry by the plaintiff upon breach of such covenant, and the plaintiff says that the defendant, since the making of the said agreement, has not kept the house in good repair, and the same is now in a dilapidated condition.

Statement of Defence.

1. The defendant says that the road was and is a public highway for horses and carriages; and a few days before the 5th of March, 18 , the plaintiff wrongfully erected the gate across the road for the purpose of obstructing and preventing, and it did obstruct and prevent the use of the road as a highway. And the defendant on the said 5th March, 18 , caused the said gate to be removed, in order to enable him lawfully to use the road by his horses, carts and waggons as a highway.

2. The defendant denies the allegations of the 5th paragraph of the statement of claim, and says that neither he nor any of his workmen or servants did any act, or used any violence, other than was necessary to enable the plaintiff lawfully to use the highway.

An Act to change the name of the Town of Clifton to that of Niagara Falls.

[Assented to 4th March, 1881.]

WHEREAS the corporation of the town of Clifton has, by Preamble. its petition, prayed that the name of the town of Clifton be changed to that of "Niagara Falls," and has by the said petition set forth that great injustice is done to the inhabitants of the said town, who largely depend upon travellers and tourists who visit that locality, owing to the attractions of the Niagara Falls, which are within the limits of the said town, and has further set forth in the said petition, that in consequence of there being another place on the American side of the river called Niagara Falls, many travellers and tourists who intend to visit the Falls are told that they must cross to the American side if they intend going to Niagara Falls; and further, that if the name of Clifton were changed to that of "Niagara Falls," many who otherwise cross the Niagara river to the American side would remain at "Niagara Falls" on the Canada side; and whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition;

Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. The name of the corporation of the town of Clifton is hereby changed from that of the Town of Clifton to that of the Town of Niagara Falls, and the corporate name of the said town is hereby declared to be "The Corporation of the Town of Niagara Falls." Name of town of Clifton changed to Niagara Falls.

2. Nothing in this Act contained shall in any way affect the validity of any by-law of the said corporation of the town of Clifton, or of any debts, debentures or other obligations of the said corporation, and all rights, powers, debts, duties and obligations of the said corporation of the town of Clifton shall be vested in, assumed by, and be and remain the rights, powers, debts, duties and obligations of the said corporation of the town of Niagara Falls. CHAPTER 46.

An Act to incorporate the City of St. Thomas.

[Assented to 4th March, 1881.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed by the late Province of Preamble.
Canada, in the twenty-third year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to incorporate the town of St. Thomas," the said town was divided into three wards, named respectively St. Andrew's Ward, St. George's Ward and St. Patrick's Ward; and by a certain other Act of the Province of Ontario, passed in the thirty-fourth year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to extend the limits of the corporation of the town of St. Thomas," a large tract of land was annexed to said town and named St. David's Ward, and by said last mentioned Act it is provided that the lands included in said ward and so annexed to the said town, should not be liable for any portion of the indebtedness contracted by the corporation of the said town prior to the passing of the said Act, except in respect of a bonus of twenty-five thousand dollars granted to the Canada Southern Railway Company, nor entitled to any of the assets possessed by the corporation of the town of St. Thomas prior to such annexation; and whereas the limits of the said town have been further extended by proclamation published in the Ontario Gazette; and whereas a special rate of three mills and nine-tenths of a mill on the dollar on the assessed value of the said town was provided by the by-law granting said bonus of twenty-five thousand dollars to the Canada Southern Railway Company, to be levied annually and set apart for the payment of interest and as a sinking fund for the redemption of the debentures issued thereunder; and whereas the assessment roll of said town has, since the passing of said by-law, increased three-fold, and the levying of said rate would by this time have yielded a much larger sum than the amount required to redeem said debentures and the payment of the interest thereon, owing to such increase of assessable property, while the said rate would, if levied annually until the maturity of said debentures, yield an amount more than treble the amount of the said debentures; and whereas said sinking fund has never been set apart by the treasurer or council of said town, though the interest upon said

said debentures has always been duly paid; and whereas the corporation of the town of St. Thomas have, by their petition, represented that the said town contains a population of upwards of ten thousand souls, and that the said population is rapidly increasing, and that by reason of its increased and extensive railway facilities, its large mercantile interests, and its situation in the midst of a rich agricultural district, the said town is now, and will continue to be, an important commercial centre; and whereas the said corporation of the town of St. Thomas have been, for some years, separated from the county of Elgin for municipal purposes; and whereas the said corporation have by their petition also asked and prayed to be incorporated as a city, to be called "The city of St. Thomas," and also to have the limits thereof extended, by adding thereto the lands and premises hereinafter mentioned, and to have the said city divided into six wards; and whereas the said corporation have set forth, in their said petition, that the ratepayers in St. David's Ward of said town have agreed to become equally liable with the remaining three wards of said town for all the liabilities and indebtedness thereof, provided the present water-works system be extended for fire protection along Talbot street eastward as far as Balaclava street, in said ward, provided said ward gets a proportionate share of all the assets possessed by the said town; and whereas the said corporation have petitioned to have the assets held as separate property by a portion of said town vested equally in the whole city, and to have all the wards thereof made equally liable for the existing indebtedness of the said town, and also to make it compulsory upon the corporation of the city of St. Thomas to extend the water-works system as aforesaid, and for the right and power to construct a main sewer or outlet for the drainage of said city, and to issue debentures to defray the expense thereof; and whereas a by-law has been passed by said town granting fifty thousand dollars in debentures of said town to assist the construction of the Credit Valley Railway from Ingersoll to St. Thomas, which by-law provides that said debentures shall not be delivered until an Act be passed incorporating said town as a city, extending its limits, redistributing its wards, equalizing taxation, and extending the water-works therein as aforesaid; and whereas the Canada Southern Railway Company and the Credit Valley Railway Company have assented to such of the provisions of this Act hereinafter contained as affect or relate to them respectively; and whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of said petition;

Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Incorporation of city of St.
Thomas.

1. On and after the passing of this Act, the said town of St. Thomas shall be and is hereby incorporated as a city, and shall be known hereafter as the corporation of the city of St. Thomas,

Thomas, and as such shall enjoy and possess all the rights, powers and privileges which could have been exercised and enjoyed by the said city of St. Thomas if the same had been incorporated as a city under the provisions of the Municipal Act, except when otherwise provided by this Act.

2. The lands and premises following, that is to say, the south halves of lots numbers four and five and that portion of the west half of the south half of lot number six which lies west of the centre line of First Avenue produced southward to the concession road, in the eighth concession of the township of Yarmouth in the county of Elgin, together with all that strip of land lying north of the present northern boundary of said town, and between such northern boundary and a line one hundred and thirty-two feet north of and parallel to the northerly limit of Barwick street, said strip of land commencing at a line produced due north from the point of intersection of the west limit of Hiawatha street with the lands of the Great Western Railway Company and continuing to the centre line of First Avenue produced northward; also that portion of the west half of the south half of lot number six in the ninth concession of Yarmouth aforesaid, which lies west of the centre line of First Avenue produced northward, shall be detached from the township of Yarmouth and added to the existing limits of the said town, and form part of the said city of St. Thomas; and all that portion of the north half of the west half of lot number six in the said eighth concession, which lies east of the centre line of First Avenue aforesaid, and which may heretofore have been within the limits of said town of St. Thomas, is hereby detached from the town of St. Thomas and added to the township of Yarmouth; but that portion of the north half of lot number six in the eighth concession of the township of Yarmouth, situate on the north-west corner thereof, known as the Willoughby Clarke one half acre, being the half acre referred to in chapter fifty-nine of the Statutes of Ontario, passed in the thirty-fourth year of her Majesty's reign, shall not be included within the limits of said city, but shall remain as heretofore a portion of the township of Yarmouth.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in the several Acts, or in the proclamation in the preamble to this Act mentioned, the city of St. Thomas shall be divided into six wards, in the manner described in the schedule to this Act, to be named respectively First Ward, Second Ward, Third Ward, Fourth Ward, Fifth Ward and Sixth Ward, and all the property and assets of the said town of St. Thomas shall belong to the city of St. Thomas generally, and without any distinction, and all the debts, liabilities and obligations of the said town of St. Thomas shall be assumed and paid by the corporation of the city of St. Thomas, and shall be levied without any discrimination as to the wards thereof, and the said corporation shall to apply.

4. The provisions of the Municipal Act relating to matters consequent upon the formation of new municipal corporations, and the other provisions of the Municipal Act aforesaid, shall, except so far as herein otherwise provided, apply to the said corporation of the city of St. Thomas in the same manner as if the said town had been erected into a city under the provisions of the Municipal Act.

Mayor and council of town to remain in office.

5. The present mayor and council of the said town shall be and continue to be the mayor and council of the said city, and shall hold office until the election of their successors, as provided by the Municipal Act, and shall exercise all the rights and powers and perform all the duties pertaining to the offices of mayor and aldermen respectively of a city, and in the event of death, resignation or disqualification of said mayor, or any member of said council, a new election shall be held to fill the vacancy under the provisions of the Municipal Act, and the qualified voters of the ward represented by any such member, immediately prior to the passing of this Act, shall be the persons entitled to vote at any such new election.

First election of mayor.

7. Henry Francis Ellis, of the said town of St. Thomas esquire, who is now the clerk thereof, or in case of his death or inability to act, such other person as the council of the said town may, by by-law, to be passed before the last Monday in the month of December next, appoint in his stead, is hereby appointed the returning officer for the purpose of holding the nomination for the first election of mayor, and it shall be lawful for, and incumbent upon the returning officer to hold such nomination at the city hall, in the city of St. Thomas, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon of the said last Monday in the month of December.

Powers and duties of returning officer.

8. The said returning officer shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of clerk of the said city until the appointment pointment by the council thereof of some other person in his place and stead.

9. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Municipal Act to the contrary, the council of the said city to be elected as aforesaid, shall consist of a mayor, who shall be the head thereof, and twelve aldermen, two aldermen being elected for each ward, but all the other provisions of law relating to municipal elections, shall apply to the elections in said city; and the said council and their successors in office, shall have, use, exercise and enjoy all the powers and privileges vested by the said municipal law in city councils, and shall be subject to all the liabilities and duties imposed by the said municipal laws on such councils.

ceive and collect from the owners or occupants of lots on Elgin street aforesaid, abutting on said main sewer or outlet, such proportion of the cost of constructing said main sewer or outlet, not exceeding the sum of fifty cents per foot for each foot frontage of any lot, as would be required to construct an ordinary sewer along said street, sufficient for the drainage of all the adjacent property, which said proportion may be ascertained by any competent engineer who may be appointed by said council for that purpose: Provided always, that no such debentures shall issue unless and until the by-law or by-laws creating the same, shall have been submitted and assented to by the electors of the said city, in the manner required by, and in compliance with, the provisions of the Municipal Act in that behalf.

Provisions as to payment of debentures issued for bonus to Canada Southern Railway.

12. The corporation of the said city shall not after the passing of this Act levy the rate provided for by the by-law granting said bonus of twenty-five thousand dollars to the Canada Southern Railway Company, but shall hereafter, during the currency of the debentures issued under the said by-law, levy and raise the annual sum of fifteen hundred dollars, and apply the same in payment of the interest on such debentures as the same becomes payable. The bonds of the London and Port Stanley Railway Company to the amount of six thousand five hundred pounds sterling, now belonging to the said corporation, being sixty-five first mortgage bonds, each for the sum of one hundred pounds sterling, bearing date the first day of February A.D. eighteen hundred and fifty-five, and numbered respectively from seven hundred and fifty-seven to eight hundred and twenty-one inclusive, shall be specially held by and are hereby specially charged in the hands of the corporation of the said city as a security to the holders of such debentures for the payment of such debentures at maturity, and so long as the interest on such debentures is regularly paid the said corporation may use the interest received by them on such bonds for such purposes as they think proper, but the said bonds or the proceeds thereof, to the extent of twenty-five thousand dollars, if sold, shall not be used for or applied to any other purpose than the payment of such debentures, provided always that the said corporation may at any time in their discretion sell the said bonds, but not at a less price than twenty-five thousand dollars for the whole or after that rate for a part thereof, and in the event of any such sale or sales, they shall invest the proceeds thereof to the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars in securities as provided for by section three hundred and fifty-eight of the Municipal Act, and such bonds or the proceeds thereof, to the extent of twenty-five thousand dollars, or the securities in which the same may be invested, as the case may be, shall be applicable to the redemption of such debentures, and shall not be used or applied for any other purpose until all the said debentures and interest thereon be fully paid.

13. Notwithstanding anything contained in the by-law of the said town of St. Thomas granting the sum of fifty thousand dollars in debentures of the said town to aid the Credit Valley Railway Company in the extension of their line from Ingersoll to the town of St. Thomas, the corporation of the city of St. Thomas shall, so soon as the said company shall have given to the corporation of the said city the bond in the said by-law mentioned, deliver the said debentures to the trustees therein mentioned, but the said trustees shall not hand over the said debentures to the said company until the said company shall have run a train of cars over their said extension from Ingersoll to St. Thomas; nor until the said trustees have cut off and destroyed all coupons for interest up to the day next preceding the running of the said train, and the said by-law and the debentures issued thereunder are, notwithstanding any other conditions contained therein, hereby declared to be legal and valid: Provided always that said debentures shall be delivered up by said trustees to the corporation of said city to be cancelled at the expiration of five years from the passing of this Act, should the said extension not be completed by that date so as to permit a train to run between Ingersoll and St. Thomas.

Delivery of debentures for bonus to Credit Valley Railway to trustees, when to be made.

14. In the event of the said bonus so granted to the Credit Valley Railway Company being transferred under any Act of the Legislature of Ontario to any other company, the conditions upon which the said bonus has been granted shall be binding upon the said company, and the bond of the said company for the due fulfilment thereof shall, in addition to the bond of the Credit Valley Railway Company, be given to the corporation of said city before the said debentures shall be issued and handed over as aforesaid; and the corporation of the said city shall be entitled to appoint a director upon the board of the said company to which said bonus may be transferred in the manner provided in the Acts relating to the Credit Valley Railway Company.

15. The taxes to be paid by the Canada Southern Railway Company to the said city upon all their real property lying north of Wellington street in the said city, and all property of the company used for railway purposes, extending to the west limit of the said city, and upon all their personal property in the said city including all water pipes and hydrants and other property used or held in connection with their water-works system within the corporation of said city, provided said water-works are not used for any other purpose than fire protection, and the supply of water for their own use, shall be commuted by the said city for the term of fifteen years as follows, namely, fifteen hundred dollars per year for five years from the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two to the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six inclusive, two thousand dollars per year for five years from the

the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven to the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one inclusive, and two thousand five hundred dollars per year for five years from the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two to the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six inclusive, the said several sums to cover all taxes, rates and assessments whatsoever against said company's property adjoining the north boundary of Centre street, in said city, but nothing herein contained shall free any of the property of said company other than said property adjoining Centre street on the north from local or frontage rates, taxes or assessments; Provided also, that so soon as any of the property of said company may be sold or leased, the same shall forthwith be liable to the same rates, taxes and assessments as other private property in the said city.

(Section 6.)

This Indenture, made in duplicate, the tenth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, between the Georgian Bay and Wellington Railway Company, of the first part, and the municipal corporation of the town of Mount Forest, of the second part.

Whereas under and by virtue of a certain by-law of the said town, numbered fourteen and entitled, "To aid the Georgian Bay and Wellington Railway Company, by granting thereto the sum of seven thousand dollars by way of bonus, and to issue debentures therefor, and to authorize the raising of an annual sum for the payment of the said debentures and the interest thereon," which said by-law was duly passed and read the third time on the sixth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, the said party of the second part did grant to the party of the first part the sum of seven thousand dollars by way of bonus, in the manner and on the conditions expressed in the said by-law;

And whereas under and by virtue of a subsequent by-law of the said town, numbered ten and entitled, "To aid the Georgian Bay and Wellington Railway Company by granting thereto the sum of four thousand dollars by way of bonus, and to issue debentures therefor, and to authorize the levying of a special rate for the payment of the said debentures and the interest thereon," which said by-law was duly passed and read a third time on the tenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, the said party of the second part did grant to the said party of the first part by way of bonus the sum of four thousand dollars, in the manner and upon the conditions expressed in the said by-law;

And whereas it was one of the conditions of the last mentioned by-law, that the debentures representing the said bonus of four thousand dollars should not be delivered to the statutory trustees appointed under the charter of the party of the first part until a proper legal release of the debentures contemplated by the first of the above-named by-laws to the extent of four thousand dollars, being the ones to be issued under the terms of the said first mentioned by-law, upon the completion of the railway of the party of the first part to Owen Sound, should be delivered by the said party of the first part to the said party of the second part;

Now, therefore, this Indenture witnesseth that in consideration of the premises and of the delivery to the said statutory trustees of the debentures contemplated by the second of the above

above by-laws (when the same shall have been so delivered), the said party of the first part doth release, quit claim, and forever yield up to the party of the second part, its successors and assigns, all claims, rights and demands whatsoever, whether in possession or expectancy, and whether at law or in equity, or howsoever, which the party of the first part now has or may have in the future against the said party of the second part or its successors, or the ratepayers, or the property of the said town, for the issue of the said debentures to the extent of four thousand dollars, under the first of the above-mentioned by-laws, but nothing herein contained is in any way to impair the right of the said party of the first part to the remaining three thousand dollars of debentures contemplated under said first mentioned by-law, in accordance with the conditions thereof, it being the intention of all parties to substitute the four thousand dollars of debentures to be issued under the second by-law for the like amount under the first by-law, and that the party of the first part shall receive seven thousand dollars in all under both, according to the terms thereof.

In witness whereof the party of the first part has caused its corporate seal, and the hand of its president and secretary to be affixed hereto, the day and year first above written.

the said college is an institution for the theological education of students for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and has been incorporated for that purpose by chapter sixty-nine of the statutes of the then Province of Canada, passed in the session held in the twenty-second year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria; that since the foundation of said college between three hundred and four hundred students have received in it their theological education; that nearly all the students of said college have received the greater part of their literary education at University College, Toronto; that the students of Knox College

College will, to a great extent, seek their education in arts at said University College; that neither the University of Toronto nor said Knox College has power to confer degrees in divinity, and the said students are thus precluded from obtaining such degrees from the institutions where they have received their literary and theological education; that the said college has a staff of professors and tutors, and a valuable theological library, and has erected large and expensive buildings at Toronto, in proximity to said University College, for the purpose of affording a thorough education to the said students for the ministry of said Presbyterian Church; and that said Knox College is already partially endowed, and is constantly receiving further sums towards completing said endowment; and whereas the said Knox College has prayed that in order to promote a higher standard of theological learning, and to prevent its students from being compelled to resort to other colleges for degrees in divinity, power might be granted to it to confer such degrees; and whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of said petition;

Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. The said John McArthur, Daniel Campbell, Alexander J. Grant, John W. Ferguson, and Duncan B. McLennan, all of the township of Charlottenburgh, trustees of St. Andrew's Church, Williamstown, in the county of Glengarry, in connection with the Presbyterian Church in Canada, and the survivor or survivors of them, or their successors in office, shall have full power and authority to contract and to sell the said west half of lot number eleven, in the first concession or range south side of the River aux Raisins, in the township of Charlottenburgh, as described in the patent thereof from the Crown, ^{Sale of land authorized.}

Application of proceeds of sale.

2. The vendors shall apply the proceeds of such sale for the benefit of the resident minister, for the time being, of the said congregation of St. Andrew's Church, Williamstown, and his successors, in compliance with the terms of the original deed in that behalf: Provided always that the purchaser or purchasers shall not be responsible for the application of the moneys arising from the sale of the said lot, or any part thereof.

Rights not affected.

3. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to affect any rights of any other person or persons in respect of said lands, nor any liens or incumbrances now existing on or against said lands.

Preamble.

necessary steps to sell the said church to that body, or otherwise, as to them may seem best; and that the proceeds arising from the sale of said church be, by the said trustees, applied in payment of the debts due on said church, which are largely in excess of the amount which can be realized from such sale; and whereas, in and by the deed granting said lands to said trustees, the said lands can only be sold in case a more advantageous and better situation for a union church can be procured; and whereas all requisite formalities have been complied with; and whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of said petition, and to authorize the sale of the said lands;

Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

Sale by trustees authorized.

1. The said trustees of the building fund of the Union church, in the village of Port Colborne, in the county of Welland, for the time being, and their successors in office, are hereby empowered to grant, bargain, sell and convey the lands before referred to, being lot number five, on the north side of Charlotte street, in said village of Port Colborne, absolutely and freed from all trusts, of whatsoever nature or kind, created by or under the deed mentioned in the preamble to this Act, and such deed of conveyance shall be valid and binding upon all parties thereto, but expressly subject to all mortgages, liens and incumbrances now rightfully existing on or against said lands.

CHAPTER 89.

An Act to vest certain lands in the Town of Woodstock in Trustees, and to authorize a sale of the same.

[Assented to 4th March, 1881.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS lots numbers two and three, on the east side of Graham street in the town of Woodstock, were by letters patent, bearing date the twelfth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, granted to certain trustees therein named, in trust for the benefit of the Presbyterian congregation of Woodstock, in connection with the Church

Church of Scotland; and whereas an Act of the Parliament of the Province of Canada was passed in the thirtieth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to authorize the trustees of the Presbyterian congregation of the town of Woodstock, in connection with the Church of Scotland, to sell certain lots in the said town held by them in trust for the said congregation," and under and by virtue of said Act, a certain portion of said lot number two, on the east side of Graham street, was sold and conveyed to one Caleb Caister, by deed, dated the twenty-eighth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, which piece of land so conveyed to the said Caleb Caister, is described as follows: Commencing at the south-west angle of lot number two, then northerly along the western boundary of the said lot fifty feet, then easterly parallel with the southern boundary of the same lot two hundred and thirteen feet (more or less) to the eastern boundary thereof, then southerly along the said eastern boundary fifty feet to the south-east corner of said lot, then westerly along the southern boundary of the same lot two hundred and thirteen feet (more or less) to the place of beginning; and whereas, by deed dated the twelfth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, the then trustees of the said Presbyterian congregation of the town of Woodstock, in connection with the Church of Scotland, conveyed all that portion of said lot number two on the east side of Graham street, not sold to the said Caleb Caister, and all of lot number three, to the trustees of Chalmers' church in the Town of Woodstock, for the nominal consideration of one dollar, for the purpose of erecting a church thereon for the use of the congregation of said Chalmers' church; and whereas the said congregation of Chalmers' church in the town of Woodstock, have decided not to erect a church on the said lands so conveyed to them, as hereinbefore mentioned, for that purpose, and the said congregation is desirous that the said lands should be vested in the persons hereinafter named, upon and for the purposes hereinafter declared; and whereas the members of the said Presbyterian congregation of the town of Woodstock, in connection with the Church of Scotland, have joined the said Chalmers' church and Knox church in said town of Woodstock, and the St. Andrew's church congregation on the west quarter town line of the township of East Oxford, and the said Presbyterian congregation, of the town of Woodstock, in connection with the Church of Scotland, no longer exists as a congregation, and it is expedient that the said lands should be so vested in trustees and the same sold and the proceeds divided as hereinafter provided;

Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. Lot number three and that portion of lot number two, on the east side of Graham street, in the town of Woodstock, not heretofore heretofore sold and conveyed to Caleb Caister, are hereby vested in William Pott, of the town of Woodstock, in the county of Oxford, merchant, William A. Reid of the same place, merchant, and Robert Chambers, of the township of East Oxford, in the county of Oxford, farmer.

Trustees empowered to sell land.

2. The said William Pott, William A. Reid and Robert Chambers, and the survivors of them, shall have full power and authority to sell the said parcels of land composed of said lot number two and that portion of lot number three on the east side of Graham street, not heretofore conveyed to the said Caleb Caister, either in one or more parcels, to such person or persons, party or parties as may be willing to become the purchaser or purchasers thereof, and that in such manner, whether by public sale or private contract, or partly by the one way and partly by the other, and at such times and at such price or prices, and on such terms of payment and security as to them or a majority of them may seem best, and by a good and sufficient title or titles under their hands and seals to convey the same when so sold to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, in trust, to apply the proceeds of such sale or sales, and the sale or sales of such securities as may be taken by them as aforesaid, as follows:—

Application of proceeds.

First. To pay all necessary costs and expenses connected with the trust hereby created, and the sale and disposal of the said lands, and also to pay the congregations of Knox church and Chalmers' church, at Woodstock aforesaid, all costs and expenses incurred by them in connection with said property.

Second. If the said parcels of land shall produce only the sum of three thousand dollars, or any less sum, after paying the expenses connected with the trusts hereby created, and the sale and disposal of the lands hereinbefore mentioned, and the costs and expenses of the congregations of Knox church and Chalmers' church, in connection with said property, they are to divide the same equally between the Presbyterian congregations of Chalmers' church and Knox church, Woodstock, and St. Andrew's church on the west quarter town line of the township of East Oxford; but if the said lands shall produce a greater sum than three thousand dollars, after payment of all costs and expenses as aforesaid, then they are to distribute three thousand dollars equally amongst the said three congregations and to pay all amounts over the said sum of three thousand dollars equally between the congregations of Chalmers' and Knox churches, of Woodstock.

Payments to treasurers of the several congregations by trustees a sufficient discharge.

3. It is hereby declared that moneys received for the said lands may by the said trustees be paid over to the treasurers of the said respective congregations for the use of the said several congregations of Chalmers' church, Knox church and St. Andrew's church above mentioned, and that the receipts of the said several treasurers of the said respective churches shall be a sufficient discharge to the said trustees.

CHAPTER 90.

An Act to vest in the newly appointed Trustees of the Marriage Settlement of B. H. Dixon, the property therein comprised, and to authorize the sale and leasing thereof.

[Assented to 4th March, 1881.]

WHEREAS Benjamin Homer Dixon and Frances, his wife, Preamble.
have, by their petition, represented that, before their marriage, the said Benjamin Homer Dixon was seized, in fee simple, in possession of certain real estate, situate on Wellesley street, in the city of Toronto, known as "The Homewood," containing about four acres, more particularly described in the indenture hereafter referred to, and was, also, possessed of the personal estate in the said indenture referred to; that shortly before said marriage, and in contemplation thereof, the said Benjamin Homer Dixon, by the said indenture, which is dated the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and registered in the registry office for the city of Toronto on the fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, conveyed the said real estate unto Fitz Eugene Dixon and William Henry Boulton, and their heirs, and assigned the said personal estate therein mentioned unto the said Fitz Eugene Dixon and William Henry Boulton, their executors and administrators, to the uses and upon the trusts following, that is to say: to the use of himself, the said Benjamin Homer Dixon, for life, with remainder, after his death, to the use of said Frances, his then intended wife, for life, and, after the death of the survivor of them, to the use of any child or children of the intended marriage, as the said Benjamin Homer Dixon should appoint, and, in default of appointment, and so far as any appointment should not extend, to the use of all the children of the said intended marriage, who, being a son or sons, should attain the age of twenty-one years, or, being a daughter or daughters, should attain that age or marry, which should first happen, and in case there should be no child of the said intended marriage, who, being a son, should attain the age of twenty-one years, or, being a daughter, should attain that age or marry, then to the use of the said Benjamin Homer Dixon, his heirs and assigns forever; that the said Fitz Eugene Dixon never executed the said indenture, and that it is uncertain whether he ever accepted the trusts thereof; that the said William Henry Boulton died on or about the first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four; that the said Fitz Eugene Dixon died on or about the twenty-second day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and, at the time of his death, was an alien domiciled abroad, and that his heir-at-law is also an alien domiciled abroad;

abroad; that, under and by virtue of a power to that effect contained in the said settlement, the said Benjamin Homer Dixon has recently appointed two new trustees thereof, namely, James Henderson and Frederick William Kingstone, both of the said city of Toronto, barristers-at-law, in the place and stead of the said William Henry Boulton and Fitz Eugene Dixon, deceased, but that the real and personal estate comprised in said settlement has not yet been conveyed and assigned to or vested in the said newly appointed trustees; that, neither under the said indenture of settlement or otherwise, is there any power to sell the said real or personal estate, or any part thereof, or, until after the death of the survivor of the said Benjamin Homer Dixon and his said wife, to give valid binding leases for any term certain; that there are six children of the said marriage, the youngest of the age of one year, and that the said Benjamin Homer Dixon is of the age of sixty-one years, and his said wife of the age of forty-one years; that the said real estate has been and now is occupied by the said Benjamin Homer Dixon and his said wife, as a residence and garden and pleasure grounds appurtenant thereto, and all such garden and grounds are not required by them, and are a burden to them by reason of taxation and care, and that the expense thereof, and loss of benefit that would result if the property could be sold or let are detrimental, not only to them but to children of the marriage in view (among other views) of reasonable expectation of such children to possess such means as their parents might accumulate and leave at their death; that the ordinary powers to sell and lease usually inserted in all well drawn settlements of real estate for the benefit of parents and their children, whether drawn by conveyancers or by direction of the Court of Chancery, were omitted in the said settlement through inadvertence; that the said real estate is very valuable for building purposes, and could be sold or let within a reasonable time for such purposes, and has, irrespective of the residence thereon and buildings appurtenant thereto, and sufficient ground to hold therewith, a capacity for such purposes of about six hundred feet of frontage on streets, that is to say, four hundred feet on Homewood avenue when produced, and two hundred feet on Wellesley Place; that the said James Henderson and Frederick William Kingstone, the present trustees of the said marriage settlement, assent to the said petition; and the said petitioners have prayed, that the said real and personal estate, now subject to the trusts of the said indenture of settlement, may be vested in the said James Henderson and Frederick William Kingstone, for the estate therein, which would now be vested in the said Fitz Eugene Dixon and William Henry Boulton, if the said Fitz Eugene Dixon had accepted the trusts thereof, and he and the said William Henry Boulton were now living; and that powers may be given to the said James Henderson and Frederick William Kingstone, and the survivor of them, and the executors and administrators of such survivor, or the trustees or trustee for the time being of said settlement, or any nominee or nominees of the Court of Chancery, to sell and to lease the said property, and for the investment and disposition of the proceeds of sales or leases, and for such powers and provisions as are usual and proper in ante-nuptial settlements of realty directed to be sold for the benefit of children of the marriage generally, with a power of appointment as in said indenture contained; and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition;

Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1. The said real and personal estate, now subject to the trusts of the said indenture of settlement, shall be, and the same hereby is vested in the said James Henderson and Frederick William Kingstone, and their heirs, executors and administrators, according to the nature and quality thereof as joint tenants, for the estate therein, which would now be vested in the said Fitz Eugene Dixon and William Henry Boulton, if the said Fitz Eugene Dixon had accepted the trusts thereof, and he and the said William Henry Boulton were now living.

Estate vested in new trustees.

2. The said James Henderson and Frederick William Kingstone, and the survivor of them, and the executors and administrators of such survivor or other the trustee or trustees for the time being of the said settlement, shall have full power to sell, convey and dispose of the said real and personal estate, for the whole or any part of the estate, right, title and interest at law or in equity therein, which he, the said Benjamin Homer Dixon, had therein at and immediately before the execution of the said indenture, free from the claims of all persons who could or might claim thereunder, or under him, said Benjamin Homer Dixon, save only purchasers, mortgagees, lien holders, or incumbrancers, if any, and saving, as aforesaid, may, also, under the provisions hereafter named, lease the said real estate, or any parts thereof: Provided, however, that no sale or lease shall be made during the lifetime of the said Benjamin Homer Dixon without his consent in writing thereto, nor after his death during the lifetime of his said wife, Frances, without her consent in writing thereto.

Trustees empowered to sell or lease.

Proviso.

3. Any person or persons who may, at any time, have authority, by virtue of any of the provisions of this Act, either directly, as above named, or indirectly, as trustees for the time being of said settlement, or as appointee of the Court of Chancery, to sell or convey or lease, may, until the death of the survivor of the said Benjamin Homer Dixon and his said wife, with the consent aforesaid, and subsequently, as they or he think fit, sell or lease at public auction, or by private contract, for cash or on credit, with security for payment by reconveyance reconveyance by way of mortgage or other security, and, from time to time, in several or one lot or lots, with power to buy in at any auction and rescind or vary any contract of sale or lease, and resell or relet, without being responsible for any loss occasioned thereby, and the purchase money and rents receive and discharges therefor give, and any one paying shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, and any sale or lease may be, upon, with and subject to any stipulations, conditions, covenants, provisos for re-entry, agreements for renewal, at rents to be determined by arbitration, forfeiture or otherwise, as they or he think fit; and if it shall so happen that, by reason of determination or of forfeiture of any lease or contract of sale, or of any mortgage they or he may take as security, the lands leased, sold or mortgaged should revert, the same may be resold or relet, with any and under any of the powers herein contained, which shall not be deemed exhausted; such person or persons may lay out and set apart any of the said real estate, from time to time, as and for streets or lanes, and grant rights of way over the same, or dedicate the same to the public, and such grants may be on such terms as they or he see fit.

Appointment
by Court of Chancery.

4. The Court of Chancery may, from time to time, appoint any person or persons to exercise all or any of the powers or directions by this Act given or conferred, either solely or jointly with the said James Henderson and Frederick William Kingstone, or with either of them, or with the trustees or trustee for the time being of said settlement, and may cancel, from time to time, its appointments and reappoint; the Court may, at all times, interfere and direct as to the disposal, control and investment of moneys, but, as to the securities hereinafter named whereon moneys may be invested, the person or persons for the time being authorized to invest may invest in any such securities, and power to invest shall not be confined to mortgages and Government securities.

Investment of proceeds of sales or

5. All moneys received as proceeds of sales or rentals or otherwise, shall, after deducting all expenses for insurance against loss by fire, if any, of the trust property, and all taxes and all expenses and outlay whatever attendant on or towards the execution of any of the powers or directions by this Act, or by the said indenture of settlement, given or conferred, or on directions that may be required or granted by the Court, and all expenses and allowances and indemnity to trustees that the Court may think proper, including allowances to the person or persons, for the time authorized to act, for his or their care, trouble and responsibility, in like manner as in case of a trust, shall be laid out and invested in or upon real securities in Canada, or Government securities of Canada, or of any province thereof, the debentures of any municipality in the Province of Ontario, or in any other manner or way authorized by the Act passed in the forty-second year of the reign
